Administration Works for Progress

Mr. M. E. Acocks, superintendent, glances up from the statistics of the year.

Our principal, Mr. L. P. Warttinen, pauses in the midst of his crowded schedule.

Seated: Mr. Emerson Neumann, Dr. Richard Jackson, president; Mrs. Helen Ellis, clerk; Mrs. Virginia Lydy.

Standing: Mr. Roger Whetstone, Mr. Donald Alford, and Mr. M. E. Acocks acted as the Board of Education.

Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Geiser, Mrs. Conkle and Mrs. Trimner prepared lunch daily for the students.

Always willing to help, Mr. Wyandt, Mr. Heisler, Mr. Miller kept the school clean and neat.

daily climbs
up and down the stairs

the nation paused to pay a final tribute

September 4 brought an end
To a summer
Full of fun and excitement.
It brought with it
New faces, new activities, and homework.
Students soon became adjusted
To the new pattern
And the daily climbs
Up and down the stairs
Became an accepted routine.
Long weeks of weary practice
Were rewarded on Friday nights.
Crowds gathered to cheer
The mighty Flashes
On to a triple tie for the league crown.
In the fall
Sorrow and mourning
Interrupted this furious year
With the assassination of a great man,
The President of the United States,
John Fitzgerald Kennedy.
With flags at half-mast
The nation paused to pay
A final tribute
To this man of equality.

practice rewarded on Friday night feet tramped through drifts on snow

Soon winter was upon us
 And feet tramped
 Through drifts of snow.
 Football season ended
 And indoor sports began.
 Basketball caught fire
 And carried the Flashes
 Through an exciting season
 With Willard finishing
 In a tie for second
 For the NOL crown.
 Tournament play found
 The Flashes as district runners-up.
 Basketball season was interrupted
 By two very important events.
 Students found a 9 day vacation
 For Christmas the necessary ingredient
 To revive them until the end.
 After vacation came the dreaded event,
 Examinations!
 Long hours were spent
 Pouring over dusty material
 From the first half of the year.

pouring over dusty material

with windows open

Before long, it was Spring
 With the fresh, green grass
 And warm, new breezes
 Came more, and more activities.
 With all the windows open
 Spring became official.
 It became harder to study.
 Students found, chemistry lab interesting,
 But the out-of-doors beckoned
 To their young, invigorated natures.
 Signs and poster became a part
 Of the spring campaign
 For student government day.
 With council elected
 And official appointed,
 This day of governmental knowledge
 Became a reality.

the ship anchored
in the gymnasium

young love blossomed

Spring also brought Delightful evenings
Meant only for the proms.
"Hawaiian Luau" bore
Tidings of tropical splendor
And the illusion of
Blue waters, white sand,
And palm trees.
Juniors presented the seniors
With a "Moonlight Cruise."
After enjoying a filling banquet,
The ship anchored in the gymnasium.
Soft music through rippling waves
Carried Queen Linda
And her court
To the throne
Amidst the sea breezes.
With spring in the air,
Young love blossomed.

last minutes approached

a step into the unknown

a last look at WHS

*The last minute approached
 Carrying with it happy memories
 For an entire lifetime.
 For some it meant college,
 For others a job or a family,
 But to all, it meant
 A step into the unknown,
 Into life.
 Graduation brought down
 The final curtain.
 The tassel now hung
 On the left.
 A last look at WHS
 Finished the year
 How grand it was,
 And now,
 Only a memory.*

We Dedicate

The quiet strength
Of love,
The patient understanding
Of wisdom,
The encouraging warmth
Of a smile
Fused
Into two personalities.

Denying
Your own lives
You have given
Not only advice
You have given
Of yourselves.

With the perception
Of maturity
You have given
Guidance
And friendship
To us.

You have given
The vision
Of two lives
Dedicated
To others—
A vision
Of love.

In return for your Dedication
We dedicate this book
To you—
Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wiebe

We Remember

Life is full
Of love and hate,
War and peace,
Victories and defeats,
Sunshine and storms,
. . . joy and sorrow.

Spring is the time
For excitement.
It brings thoughts
Of new loves
And those
Of the past.
It carries
Tender memories
For friends of WHS.
Of the One
Who left us
So suddenly,
So tragically.

We leave
This page
In memory of Lucreta Ann Heal.

SENIORS

Seniors Begin. . .

Ernie Caudill, Sec., Alan Lydy, V. Pres., Charles Fields, Pres., Mr. Moomaw, adviser, Claudette Bauer, Treas., and Bill Albright, Social Chairman, led the Seniors in the planning of their activities.

Class Colors: Sky Blue and Cadet Blue
Class Flower: White Rose Bud
Class Motto: Today we follow;
Tomorrow we lead.

Nostalgia and hope
Were found in every heart.
A look at the long years
Showed fulfillment and happiness.
A thought about old time
Brought smiles and tears.
Every thing was accomplished here
Except graduation.
Nothing was new.
Everything was the same,
But this was "the" year--
The end to the beginning.
New fears arose
About tomorrow and
The future.
Last moments together as a class
Became cherished memoirs
For the last chapter
Of that old scrapbook.
The day came -- June 1.
Graduation was over and
Youth led to adulthood at last.
Still, a year, a years
Never to be forgotten.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Mr. Hershey, Mr. Martin, Advisers; Diane Gardner, Sec.; Linda Winemiller, V. Pres.; David Jump, Pres.; Charlene Arnold, Treas.; Tom King, Soc. Ch. prepare plans for Prom.

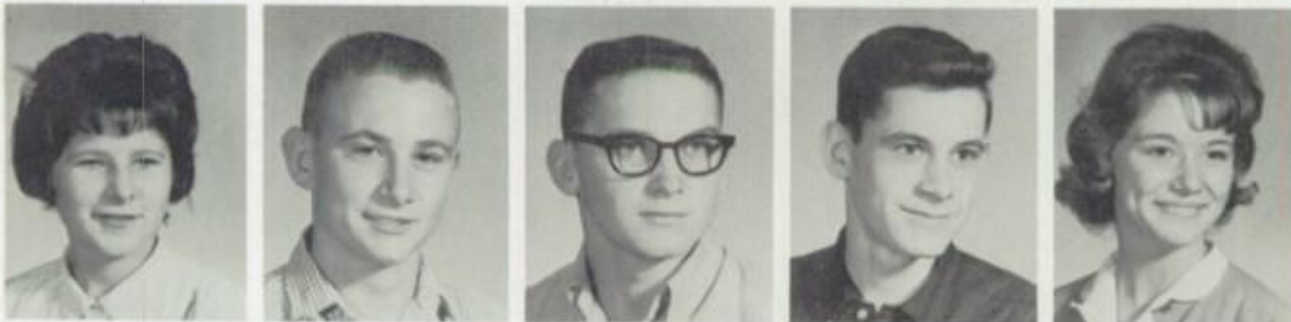

Upperclassmen, at last!
Suddenly the old and familiar
Became new and exciting.
There was much to be done
And so very little time.
Baby blue and silver were chosen
As class colors to denote
The class of '65.
"Waste not the smallest time,
For seconds form eternity."
was selected as a motto.
Blue Corrogated white carnations
Were selected as the flower.
Then, the Prom came.
What could have been more suitable than -- a Moonlight Cruise.
Graduation drawing nearer and Expectations growing higher became
A part of the greatest year.

the greatest year--Juniors!

Sophomores Reach Halfway Mark —

Linda Taylor, Social chairman; Eric Hosler, President; Mr. Smith, Adviser; Edward Wiers, Vice President; and Marcia Earl, Secretary-Treasurer led the sophomores thru their first fund raising event--sweat shirt sale.

Going back to the old familiar places
With faces missing and
New ones to replace them,
Created a new situation.
A little doubt appeared.
Would it be the same?
Soon everything was normal.
Nothing could have been better.
A project was chosen--
Sweat shirts.
Growing spirit marked a class,
Sophomores!

ACTIVITIES

Representatives Govern Student Body

Gregory Thompson, Mary Funk, Kurt Jump and Linda Winemiller conducted the official business of the Student Council.

Under the guidance of the new high school principal, the Student Council reorganized this year with four representatives from each class.

As the head of student government, the Student Council acts in an executive manner. They, in coordination with the administration, are responsible for the making of student rules and regulations and providing student assemblies.

SEATED: Cheryl Dawson, Cecealis Richards, Mary Funk, Kurt Jump, Linda Winemiller, Gregory Thompson, Charlene Arnold.
STANDING: Richard Moore, David Harwood, Deborah Schields, Dorothy Ruggles, Charles Fields, Mary Helman, Rhonda Fritz, Robert Holmes, Terry King.

FTA Prepares Teachers

Sidell, Jane Hill, Karen Stein, Mary Crawford, Jeri Kipp, Connie Jump. THIRD ROW: Ann Frederick, Karen Geiser, Marcia Earl, Barbara Brown, Kay Lohr, Diane Roeder, Susan Young, Charlene Wyandt, Rebecca Brown, Rebecca Stearns, Rosanna Drury, Donna Hicks, Cynthia Doan.

With new advisers, Mr. and Mrs. James Beck, the Willard chapter of the Future Teachers of America again became a student organization.

This association's purpose is to promote the occupation of teaching. They actively engage in substitute teaching and help the teachers by grading papers. Their project for this year was the sale of paperback books.

President and Vice President, Jolynn Joyce and Edna Conger, exchange paperback books, which was the money-making project for the 1963-'64 year.

Symphonic Choir Adds Vitality

Sandra Tussey, Gail Sawyer, Linda Heisler, Ann Frederick, Mary Helman, Walter Buss, Ronald Phillips, Diane Roeder, Sheila Thompson, Virginia Cherry, Rosanna Drury, Karen Geiser, Rebecca Starbuck.

ABOVE: Sharon Hupp, Gail Sawyer, Susan Young, Sharon Hoskin, Helen Wiers, and Barbara Baxter combined voice qualities in a sextet.

AT LEFT: Mrs. Zweidinger led the choral department through a successful year of song.

To Familiar Melodies

Dianne Wyandt, Barbara Baxter, Claudette Bauer, Sec.; Robert Lohr, Douglas Smeltz, Douglas Danhoff, V. Pres.; Dwight Cherry, Raymond Fitzsimmons, Roy McKinley, Pres.; Robert Hoskin, Robert Holmes, Shirley Whetstone, Susan Herion.

As the year progressed, under the new director, Mrs. Paul Zweidinger, the Symphonic Choir practiced diligently and presented the Christmas Concert. This included the songs "Sleigh Ride" and "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," which was accompanied by the concert band. The Spring Concert, which featured "On Stage with Cole Porter," was also presented. In addition to the concerts, the choir presented various selections for the student body at assemblies throughout the year.

In co-ordination with the Symphonic Choir, the Girls' Glee Club gave ample and talented assistance in the presentation of concerts and assemblies.

Girls' Glee Club Sings Joyously

Concert season brought fun and excitement. The Mid-Winter Band Concert presented "OVER

THE RAINBOW," along with the sing-a-long song "ON THE MALL." On stage with Cole Porter and "THEME FROM THE APARTMENT" became the main attraction of the Spring Concert.

Decoration Day ended the memorable year with a salute to the brave.

WHS marching band added entertainment at half-time during the football season.

Dance Band Swings Out

Claire Strauss, secretary, Judy Crawford, president, Susan Herion, treasurer, Judy Kilper, vice president, Tom Fuller, reporter, and Dianne Brubaker, assistant treasurer led the band for the school year of 1963-1964.

Music and rhythm enlivened the spirits at the basketball games this year by the addition of the pep band. Its music to back the team in its many victories sparked the crowd to support their team through the tournament games.

Delightful music accompanied an enjoyable evening at the Parents' Band Dance. The dance band played a variety of music for this dance which occurs annually for the parents of the band students. It also performed for the Mid-Winter Band Concert and the Spring Concert, which concluded a successful and enjoyable year.

Cecealia Richards gives the light of knowledge to the inductees of the society.

Scholarship, Service, Leadership, and Character represent the National Honor Society in its four cardinal principles. This society dedicates itself to perpetuating knowledge in young Americans. It holds its standards high to beckon worth-while qualities, not only in its members, but also in all students. May 21, 1964, found 17 students in WHS ready to uphold the high ideals of the society. These new members, in addition to the senior ranks, boasted the elite membership to 26.

Medi-Corps Organizes in WHS

Front Row: Carolyn Harter, Treasurer; Janice Grimm, Vice-President; Cheryl Dawson, Secretary; Joan Kilper, President. Second Row: Susan Fulton, Frances Oliver, Claire Strauss, Jan Taylor, Mrs. Hauser, Advisor. Third Row: Janet Fitch, Cynthia Browning, Karen Wolfe, Linda

Medi-corps experienced its first year in WHS and boasted a membership of thirty. Nurses, Doctors, and Orderlies rated among the careers selected by the ranks. This new, enthusiastic corps found an outlet for its interests in the Candy Stripes. The Municipal Hospital organized this program to help future medical students have first-hand experience in their future professions.

Karen Wolfe works as a Candy Striper in the hospital.

Annual Staff Provides Memory Book

This year's annual staff presented a new method in composing their yearbook. In adding poetry to pictures, they hoped to enliven the story of the year. Deadlines found the staff frustrated and frantic with copy unwritten and pictures untaken. New ideas brought new problems for the editors to solve.

Although the going became rough at times, the staff faced the challenge set before them and survived, never regretting their experience.

Mary Lewis, Class Editor; Sharon Hoskin, Activities Editor; Danny Link, Staff Editor, and Pam Caudill, Bookkeeper, work industriously with subscriptions.

Douglas Danhoff, Identification Editor; Mary Funk, Typist; Daniel Bricker, Photographer; Sally Sands, Typist; William Laichas, Sports Editor; and Vicki Jump, artist, look over old "CHIEFS."

Mr. Insley, Adviser; Becky Starbuck and Cecealia Richards, Co-Editors, look for helpful hints in 'Han-dee Editor Guides.

Jonathan remarks, as Teddy prepares to charge up the stairs.

Two sweet, elderly ladies, Martha and Abigail Brewster, serenely poison eleven gentlemen. Their nephew Mortimer, a drama critic, discovers this and decides that if insanity runs in his family, as it evidently does, he cannot marry Elaine Harper, to whom he has just proposed. Mortimer tries to protect his aunts from the police, but when he seems to be succeeding his brother Jonathan, who has just escaped from an asylum for the criminally insane, turns up searching for a place to hide out.

Climaxing the play, a policeman finds John and his accomplice, Dr. Einstein, about to murder Mortimer to prevent his reporting them. Mortimer is told by his aunts that he is really no relation to them at all. His aunts decide to retire to Happydale with their younger brother, Teddy, and the eleven gentlemen remain quietly buried in the cellar.

Amazement, bewilderment and satisfaction are revealed in this tableau.

Coaches Lead Teams to Victories

Mr. Eitzman, Mr. Reed, Mr. Saunders, head coach, Mr. Reynolds and Mr. Kapp led the football teams through a successful season.

Mr. Eitzman, varsity coach, Mr. Holthouse, reserve coach, and Mr. Reed, freshman coach, pushed the basketball teams on to victory.

Mr. Reed, Mr. Reynolds, Mr. Kapp, and Mr. Saunders, head coach (absent), prodded the track team on to set five new WHS records.

Mr. Raimonde, golf coach, distributes golf awards to Tom Bauerle, Doug Dawson, Walter Buss, Kenny Atkins and Dave Harwood.

Jim Durbin, captain of the basketball team, presents the district runnerup trophy to Mr. Wartainen.

The baseball, football, varsity basketball and freshmen basketball teams receive their respective awards.

For the highest rebounding and foul shooting percentages, Jim Durbin boasts two awards.

Mr. Kapp presents Danny Silcox with a four-year letter in track.

Wally Cook earns award for highest field goal percentage.

Jim goes for a rebound.

Jim Durbin stands proudly beside the Harlow Staph trophy.

Jim Durbin Receives Staph Award

Each year the outstanding athlete receives the Harlow Staph Award for his achievements in sports. As the hero of every sport, Jim Durbin received this award. His accomplishments in football, basketball, baseball and track led WHS to many victories and trophies.

On a long touchdown run, Jim escapes the clutches of a Galion tiger.

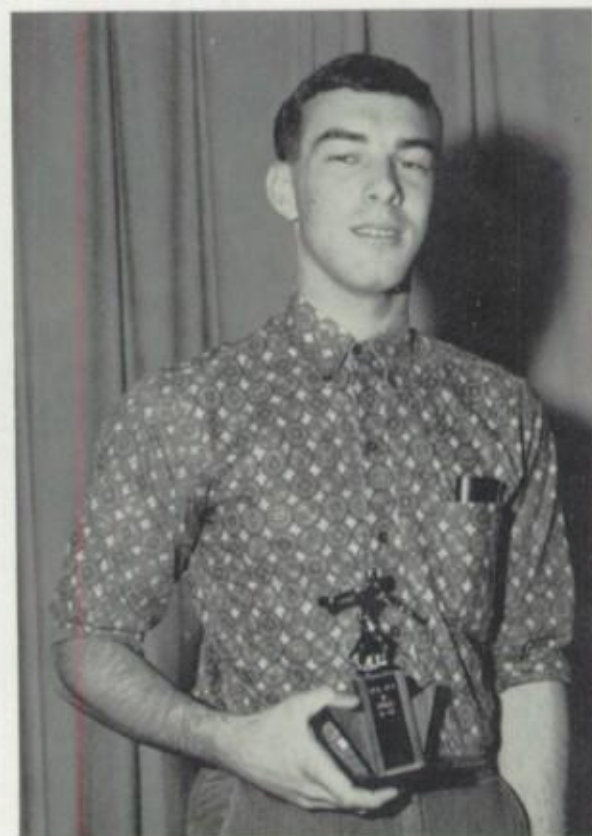

(at left) Mr. Insley, annual adviser, presents Becky Starbuck and Cecealia Richards, co-editors, with their Quill and Scroll pins.

Mr. Zweidinger presents seniors with band awards.

(at right) Denny Thompson wins North Central Ohio Singles Tournament award.

BEST WISHES TO WILLARD
HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

Mihali Studio

NORWALK, OHIO

So the year was complete.
 Soon it would be gone
 And forgotten.
 Still it would live on
 In the memories of many.
 Old times and places
 Would be relived
 Over and over
 Through the pages of a book --
 This book --
 A record for always,
 A memory of the past.

After many hours
 Of hard work,
 We, the annual staff,
 Present this book
 To you, the Seniors of 1964.
 We hope you
 Will cherish always
 THE CHIEF.
